DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO AMEND SCHEDULING ORDER

ASSENTED TO

The defendants in the above matter respectfully move this court for an order amending the scheduling order of June 3, 2004, so that the parties may have up to and including January 17, 2005 to complete all written discovery and non-expert depositions, and then appear for a Case Management Conference sometime after that date.

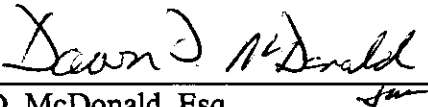

As grounds for this motion, the defendants state that their counsel, the undersigned, has had an extremely heavy trial schedule since this past summer. He has been on call for at least one trial, and sometimes as many as three, in between one and three counties for months. This heavy schedule was created because of numerous matters that were postponed during his seven month chemotherapy treatment that continued through the spring of this year. As a result, it had become difficult to complete discovery in both this and other cases.

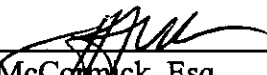

The plaintiffs have kindly assented to this motion.
